Comprehensive Guide to Karnataka Heritage & Tourism

1. Belur Chennakeshava Temple:
The Chennakeshava Temple at Belur was commissioned by King Vishnuvardhana of the Hoysala dynasty in 1117 CE to co

2. Halebidu Hoysaleswara Temple:
Built in the 12th century by King Vishnuvardhana and his architect Kedaroja, the Hoysaleswara Temple at Halebidu features

3. Hampi and Vijayanagara Empire:
Hampi was the capital of the Vijayanagara Empire during the 14th to 16th centuries. Key monuments include the Virupaksha

4. Badami, Aihole, and Pattadakal:
Badami was the capital of the Early Chalukyas, renowned for four rock-cut cave temples. Aihole is celebrated as the cradle

5. Shravanabelagola:
Home to the 57-foot monolithic statue of Lord Gommateshwara (Bahubali), carved in 981 CE by Chavundaraya.